

TWIGF

TWIGF 2020 MAIN SESSION

Theme	Critical Internet Resources
Topic	Internet exchange business model
Brief Overview	Internet exchange (IX) is a critical internet infrastructure which provides services and operations for Internet service providers. Internet exchange (IX) establishes local and regional Internet connectivities . It helps to minimize network response time and to improve network service quality.
Policy Questions to be Discussed	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Taiwan Internet embraces significant number of interconnections among ISPs. Is Internet exchange still considered important for the local Internet ?2) What is government's role in the IX market3) How to encourage Tier one ISPs to participate Internet exchange ?
Agenda	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Topic Introduction by the Moderator (10 min.)2) Multi-stakeholder Discussion on the Reports (40 min.)3) Open Discussion with the Audience (30 min.)4) Wrap-up (10 min.)
Moderators	Kenny Huang (CEO, TWNIC)
Panelists	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Che-Hoo Cheng (Director, APNIC)● Wei-Min Wang (Marketing Manager , CHT)● Katsuyasu Toyama. (Chair, APIX)● Hsien-Liang Chu (Deputy Director General, NCHC)
Organizers	Kenny Huang, TWNIC